

Mormonism and the Environment

A Panel Discussion Co-Sponsored by the LDS Institute of Religion and the
WSU Environmental Issues Committee

Friday, March 21, 2014

12:30 PM to 1:30 PM

Wildcat Theater

WSU Shepherd Union

PANELISTS:

Bill Williams, Director of Architecture & Design for the Special Projects Department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, where he is responsible for the overall design efforts for all Temples of the Church worldwide.

Dr. George Handley, Professor of Comparative Studies and Interdisciplinary Humanities at Brigham Young University, where he teaches Interdisciplinary Humanities with a special interest in Environmental Humanities.

Rachel Whipple, Mother and Chair of the Board for LDS Earth Stewardship who has found through experience that the domestic work of the home is where environmental ideals of stewardship meet with the constraints of day-to-day reality.

Dr. Shane Schvaneveldt, Professor of Business Administration, teaching courses in WSU's Supply Chain Management program and the graduate (MBA) certificate program in environmental sustainability for business.