This is an Access One course, so you should have been provided with the opportunity to access a digital version of the textbook through Canvas. The online version of the textbook is found under VitalSource Course Materials in the Navigation bar on the left of our Canvas course. You might want to obtain a physical copy of the text, since studies show the readers retain more from reading physical books than ebooks.

This course may utilize a variety of digital materials, including websites, PDFs, and multimedia. We are committed to providing digitally accessible content for all students. If you encounter any barriers to access, please notify the instructor immediately.

Class Description and Objectives:

A study of Utah history from its Native American beginnings through the 20th Century--emphasizing political, economic and social developments.

Participation in the class and class discussions are expected.

Grading Policies:

Grades will be determined on the following basis:

Quizzes	50%
Oral Book Report Presentation	20%
Term Paper	20%
Class participation	10%

Grades: A: 90 - 100% B: 80 - 89% C: 70 - 79% D: 60 - 69% E: 0 - 59%
(Grades at the high or low ends of these ranges will earn plus and minus grades.)

Students with Disabilities:

Any student requiring accommodations or services due to a disability must contact Services for Students with Disabilities (SSD) in Room 181 of the Student Service Center. SSD can also arrange to provide materials (including this syllabus) in alternative formats if necessary.

Cheating Policy: Cheating and deceit are not accepted at Weber State University. Cheating on an quiz or assignment, or turning in someone else's work as your own, will result in an E for the class. You may work together on your assignments and papers, but you must turn in your own work. If you quote from a book, article, or web site, you must properly quote and cite your work. Avoid even the appearance of cheating or plagiarism.

Cell Phones, Texting, and Laptops:

Put your cell phones on vibrate. Try to avoid leaving class to take a call, but an occasional emergency is understandable. There will be NO texting in this class. Laptops or other personal digital tools may be used to take notes or look up material relevant to class discussions. No other uses of laptops will be tolerated.

Recording Classes: Video or audio recording of any portion of lectures is only permitted in this class upon my authorization. If you would like to request authorization to record, please contact me. Unauthorized recording is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct, for which a student may be subjected to disciplinary action under PPM 6-22, Student Code. Students who seek to record for purposes of accommodating a disability should contact the Disability Services Office at (801) 626-6413 or dsc@weber.edu. See more info at <https://www.weber.edu/disabilityservices>.

Campus Closure: In the event of an extended campus closure, please look at your Weber State email for instructions on how we will continue the class via email and the online course system.

Covid-19 Considerations: The pandemic is still affecting our activities. Absent new developments, please do not come to class if you are feeling ill. The instructor will always make accommodations for illness or the consequences of illness in your living situation. Remember that WSU students are expected to be vaccinated unless they have an appropriate exemption. See also, "Student Expectations for Spring 2023," at <https://www.weber.edu/academicaffairs/student-expectations.html>.

Learning Outcomes: These are the learning outcomes for this course:

1. Identify the key events which express/define change over time in a broad range of places and regions.
2. Identify how change occurs over time.
3. Explain historical continuity and change.
4. Describe the influence of political ideologies, economic structures, social organization, cultural perceptions, and natural environments on historical events.

Quizzes: There will be a quiz every day at the beginning of class. Each quiz will be based on the readings that you were given for that day, what we discussed the previous week, or will be given on the content of the previous class's presentations.

Term Paper:

A twelve-page paper describing what you learned in this course is required. This paper may concentrate on a theme or an argument, or can cover the whole course, and can also include your own research. Cite your sources if you bring in material other than what was covered in the course. The first draft may be turned in early. I will return a critique of this draft within the following week. The due date for the final draft is on the schedule. I will not accept a paper that is just a summary of your textbook(s) by an AI program.

Oral Book Presentation/Report:

Each student must select an additional book on the history of Utah. The chosen book must be approved by the instructor. On an assigned date, the student will give a ten minute in-class presentation on their book. No written report is required. No oral book report will go beyond fifteen minutes. Describe the content of the book and explain how it fits within the history of Utah. The purpose of this exercise is to introduce the class to the variety of literature available on the history of Utah.

Oral Book Report Suggestions:

These are suggestions on how to prepare your book report.

- Look up some scholarly reviews of the book, as well as reading it, since the reviews can help you place the book in a larger context. Reviews on Amazon or similar sites are usually not the best reviews for these type of books.
- Ask yourself these questions and answer them during the presentation:
 - Who is the author and why are they qualified to write this book?
 - What is the book about and when was it published?
 - Why was this book written?
 - Summarize the story being told or the arguments being made in the book.
 - What is the main point the author is trying to make?
 - What perspective is the author trying to represent in writing this text?
- When reviewing a novel, don't concentrate on talking about characters or plot, concentrate on its relevance to the history of Utah.

Scoring rubric:

Read book: Gave a clear description of text in its entirety. (40 points)

Synthesis: Understood bigger picture of text, connected small tidbits together and within larger themes. (20 points)

Presentation: Your manner was clear, organized, and prepared. Could answer questions. (35 points)

Personal insight: Made personal connections to book, could see implications of text. (5 points)
