WEBER STATE UNIVERSITY

Brian Rague <brague@weber.edu>

Computer Science CS 1030 Proposal for Computer Literacy Gen Ed Credit
2 messages

Allyson Saunders <asaunders@weber.edu>   Thu, Jan 15, 2015 at 4:17 PM
To: Brian Rague <brague@weber.edu>

Brian

After reviewing your proposal, the NTM (Network Technology and Business Multimedia) Department fully supports the CS 1030 Computer Literacy General Education Proposal. Although enrollments may decrease in NTM 1700 or equivalent CIL courses as a result of this CS Computer Literacy course, it does not adversely affect NTM. We are very supportive of this proposal.

Sincerely,

Allyson Saunders
--
Allyson D. Saunders, Ph.D.
NTM Department Chair
801-626-6823
Network Technology and Business Multimedia
Weber State University
1395 Edvalson Street Dept 1408
Ogden, UT 84408-1408

Brian Rague <brague@weber.edu>   Fri, Jan 16, 2015 at 2:14 PM
To: Allyson Saunders <asaunders@weber.edu>

Thanks, Allyson.

Brian Rague, PhD
Department Chair, Professor
Dept. of Computer Science
Weber State University
1465 Edvalson St., Dept. 2401
Ogden, UT 84408-2401
801-626-7377
brague@weber.edu
http://faculty.cs.weber.edu/brague
[Quoted text hidden]