Dance 4800 acts to guide dance students in independent readings and/or advanced research under the direction of a faculty mentor. This form, along with requirements listed below, must be turned in and approved by faculty mentor before starting directed readings. Consistent with University guidelines, student will work approximately 3 hours per week per credit hour.

Students are expected to adhere to set upon faculty mentor meetings, due dates of outlines and drafts, and submission of required final paper. Final paper will be written in MLA or Chicago style. Prerequisite: DANC 1010 and faculty mentor permission.

I propose the following project for consideration for 3 hours of credit.

- I plan to take DANC 4800 in (semester + year): _____
- Topic: _____
- I have attached a two-page proposal that (a) summarizes the topic or research question to be explored, (b) specifies the type of work to be submitted, and (c) includes a preliminary reading list.
