

FACULTY AUTHORED MATERIALS POLICIES AT INSTITUTIONS IN UTAH

U of U	http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-316.php	No financial gain permitted in their own classes, or in any classes in their department or single-department college for which they have authority to assign or recommend course materials. Accomplished by surveying students in class where self-authored materials are assigned to assess number of new copies purchased, commitment to pay that amount to tax exempt org. or can arrange for amount to be deducted as a discount for the price of the book.
BYU	http://creativeworks.byu.edu/infocenter/ippolicy.htm#VIII. REQUIRED	Exceptions where appropriately peer-reviewed and published and distributed nationally by a major publishing company external to BYU, and total sales to customers external to BYU exceed sales to BYU students. CAVEAT: BYU intends to change its policy soon. Further updates as available.
UVU	https://policy.uvu.edu/getPolicyFile/606_Adoption%20of%20Course%20Materials%20and%20Textbooks_01-21-1993_563a3ecf65db23201153c274.pdf	Review process with committee composed of member of department, member of school, member of university, and dean.
SUU	https://help.suu.edu/uploads/attachments/PP617Faculty.pdf	Review by department chair and dean. Faculty profit may not exceed 30% of retail cost.
Dixie	https://files.dixie.edu/sites/hr/pl/layouts/15/WopiFrame.aspx?sourcedoc=/sites/hr/pl/policy/605.docx&action=default	Review by two other faculty members approved by department chair who have familiarity with course content.
Snow	https://www.snow.edu/academics/faculty_senate/faculty_development/faculty_handbook.html#textbooks	Looks to be department by department.
USU	https://www.suu.edu/facultysenate/pdf/minutes/2016-02.pdf	UTAH STATE UNIVERSITY Report from SUU states: Has an annual conflict of interest form where faculty must declare more than $500 in royalties earned annually. http://hardnewscafe.usu.edu/?p=7920
SLCC		Unknown