Learning Outcomes: These are the learning outcomes for this course:

1. Identify the key events which express/define change over time in a broad range of places and regions.
2. Identify how change occurs over time.
3. Explain historical continuity and change.
4. Describe the influence of political ideologies, economic structures, social organization, cultural perceptions, and natural environments on historical events.

Timeline Exercise:

Objective: Review of key events of the history of Utah; gain an increased understanding of historical perspective.

Make a chronological timeline of what you see as the 30 most important events in the history of Utah. You can also make a timeline on a specific topic or theme in Utah history, such as the history of mining or the history of federal land use. Use our textbooks or an encyclopedia or the Internet to find your information. For each entry, include the date and a 2-3 sentence justification for your choice. Timeline MUST be typed; you may email it to me.

An example of an important event:

1856-7 - Mormon Reformation. A period of intense spiritual renewal among the Mormon community in Utah, led by fire-breathing sermons from leaders such as Jedediah M. Grant. Mormons often got rebaptized as a symbol of their renewed commitment. The Reformation was cut short by the Utah War crisis but also helped create an environment of fervent intolerance that led to the Mountain Meadows Massacre.

Grading will be based on three criteria:

- 1) Chronologically identify 30 significant events in the history of Utah. Include two or three sentences with each event describing the nature of the event and why it was important.
- 2) Neatness and presentation.
- 3) Grammatical or mechanical errors.

Term Paper:

A 5-7 page paper on any topic in Utah history is required. You must have sources and cite them. The first draft can be turned in early. I will return a critique of this draft within the following week. The due date for the final draft is on the schedule.

Oral Book Report:

Each student must select an additional book on the history of Utah. The chosen book must be approved by the instructor. On an assigned date, the student will give a ten minute in-class presentation on their book. No written report is required. No oral book report will go beyond fifteen minutes. Describe the content of the book and explain how it fits within the history of Utah. The purpose of this exercise is to introduce the class to the variety of literature available on the history of Utah.

Oral Book Report Suggestions:

These are suggestions on how to prepare your book report.

- Look up some scholarly reviews of the book, as well as reading it, since the reviews can help you place the book in a larger context. Reviews on Amazon or similar sites are usually not the best reviews for these type of books.
- Ask yourself these questions and answer them during the presentation:
 - Who is the author and why are they qualified to write this book?
 - What is the book about and when was it published?
 - Why was this book written?
 - Summarize the story being told or the arguments being made in the book.
 - What is the main point the author is trying to make?
 - What perspective is the author trying to represent in writing this text?
- When reviewing a novel, don't concentrate on talking about characters or plot, concentrate on its relevance to the history of Utah.

Scoring rubric:
